MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME.

Words and Music by GRACE F. MADER.

mf cresc.

I heard a sing - er yes - ter - day sing in ac - cents sweet and low, A song that stirred fond mem-o-ries of bright days long a - go, My fan-cy once more pictured in col - ors bright and gay, The pic-ture of my childhood home, My old home far a - way

Copyright MCM by J. R. Bell.

The Sun shines bright on my Old Ken-tuck-y home I— roam a-gain the mea-dows sweet with hay, The birds in the ma-ple trees are sing-ing, In that Old Ken-tuck-y home far a - way.....

And as she sang that sweet re - frain, tears star - ted to my eyes, I thought of that old mother far a - way 'neath sun-ny skies, Oh Heaven pro-tect my loved one in fancy I hear her pray, The one I love so dear - ly in my Old home far a - way,

The Sun shines bright on my Old Kentucky Home I'll re - turn to that old mother dear some day For I know she so pa - tient-ly is wait-ing, In that Old Ken-tuck-y Home far a - way,.....

Fine.
